The Pope's Prayer Intention for April

Let us pray that the use of the new technologies will not replace human relationships, will respect the dignity of the person, and will help us face the crises of our times.

Lord, the Word who is Life.
May all the people of our Diocese grow in openness
to the power of the Holy Spirit,
so that through a growth
in understanding and courage,
and truly open to your call,
we may bear powerful witness
to all around us,
for you are Lord for ever and ever.
Amen.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of our Lord / Luke 22:14—23:56 (or 23:1-49)

Friends, how dark are the readings for Palm Sunday! We read through Luke's Passion narrative, leaving out the good news of the Resurrection. To get to the bottom of this emphasis on suffering, to decipher its religious meaning, is to uncover the theological significance of this day.

Do you remember the first time that life really knocked you around? It might have been an extraordinary failure; it might have been the first time you confronted real violence or real hatred; it might have been a massive disappointment; it might have been the death of someone that you loved.

This mess, this problem, bedevils all of us.

The biblical approach is clear: God sets about a rescue operation—the formation of a holy people Israel who would follow his commands, worship him aright, and thereby become a magnet to the world.

They would teach and show the way out of the dilemma.

He would form a people ready to receive him; he would gradually effect a unity between divinity and humanity; and one day, a servant of Yahweh would appear, someone despised and reviled by men. And this mysterious figure would solve the problem by bearing away the sins of the world, by carrying them off through his suffering.

Bishop Robert Barron

During the Mass Bishop Richard will bless three holy oils, with diocesan priests renewing their promises of ordination to serve God and His people. The oils blessed during the Mass are that of the sick, of chrism, and of catechumens. These are used wherever there is a sacramental anointing, such as the anointing of the sick, the anointing of those about to be (or newly) baptised, or the anointing of priests. People are warmly invited to attend the Mass in person, or participate via the Cathedral livestream

CPP Young Families Easter Garden Event

Children and young people, your garden can be a solo project, or you could work as a family to visually represent Jesus' resurrection using natural materials such as moss, soil, flowers, stones and twigs with craft supplies. Simple and more elaborate designs are all welcomed. Refreshments will be served and all parishioners are invited to join CPP Young Families at the display. The Sacred Triduum

Sundown on Holy Thursday to the Vigil Mass of Easter Sunday is considered the most solemn part of the liturgical year. This three-day period is referred to as the Easter Triduum, also known as the Sacred Triduum, or Paschal Triduum. The word "triduum" comes from the Latin word triduum, which comes from tris ("three") + dies ("day"). Basically, the Sacred Triduum is one great festival recounting the last three days of Jesus' life on earth, the events of his Passion and Resurrection. Though chronologically three days, they are liturgically one day unfolding for us the unity of Christ's life, death and resurrection.

On Good Friday there will be a Special Collection for the Holy Places (sites associated with Jesus' ministry) in the Holy Land.

Why do we cover our statues and crosses during Holy Week?

We use veils to alert us of the special time that we are in. When we walk into church and notice everything is covered, we immediately know that something is different. The Church uses veils to produce a heightened sense of anticipation for Easter Sunday. This is further actualized when you attend daily Mass and see the veils each day. You don't want them to be there because they are hiding some very beautiful images. Therein lies the whole point: the veils are not meant to be there forever. The images need to be unveiled; it is unnatural for them to be covered. The unveiling before the Easter Vigil is a great reminder of our own life on earth. We live in a "veiled" world, in exile from our true home. It is only through our own death that the veil is lifted, and we are finally able to see the beauty of everything in our lives.

Walk of Witness

This year's Good Friday Walk of Witness will begin at 10:00 from Weybridge Methodist Church Mayfield Road (KT13 8TB).

We'll walk quietly behind the cross to Monument Green for a reading from the Gospel and a hymn.
