Parish Newsletter for Sunday 15th November 2020

Gospel Reflection

The problem with the timid servant who buried his talent is not that he was an ineffective venture capitalist but that he fundamentally misunderstood the nature of what he had been given. The divine mercy—received as a pure gift—is meant to be given to others as a pure gift. Buried in the ground, that is to say, hugged tightly to oneself as one's own possession, such a talent necessarily evanesces. And this is why the master's seemingly harsh words should not be read as the punishment of an angry God but as an expression of spiritual physics: the divine mercy will grow in you only inasmuch as you give it to others.

The Passage

Our Justice and Peace group support the homeless charity in London.

This year they are inviting us to the 20th Anniversary of their annual Night Under the Stars concert with a festive virtual event on the 3rd December. The evening will also commemorate 40 years of The Passage. Hosted by comedian Rory Bremner it is set to be an uplifting night of musical entertainment. Join in from the comfort of your living room.

Tickets available at their website www.passage.org.uk/events

The Passage are also launching a special 40th anniversary cookbook in aid of the charity. A Taste of Home, exclusive recipes from over 100 well-known names. Priced £25.

All profits go directly towards helping the homeless. An ideal Christmas gift.

How Does Non-Violence Resolve Conflict?

Pax Christi International is pleased to announce the publication of 'Advancing Nonviolence and Just Peace in the Church and the World'. The book shares the experiences of on-the-ground nonviolent interventions, explores the scriptural, theological and historical foundations of nonviolence, reviews the most current social science on how nonviolence has been effectively employed, and outlines a vision for how the Church might embrace active nonviolence into every aspect of its life. Advancing Nonviolence and Just Peace is a biblical, theological, ethical, pastoral and strategic resource for anyone seeking to understand or expand Catholic thinking on nonviolence. You can order your copy at www.paxchristi.net/2020/10/26/new-book-advancing-nonviolence/
