Sunday, October 20, 2024 / Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time / Mark 10:35–45

Friends, in today's Gospel, James and John ask Jesus to place them in high places in his kingdom. They are asking for two of the classic four substitutes for God: wealth, pleasure, power, and honor, specifically for the last two. Power is not, in itself, a bad thing. And the same is true of honor. Thomas Aquinas said that honor is the flag of virtue. It's a way of signaling to others something that's worth noticing.

So, what's the problem? The problem is that they are asking for these two things in the wrong spirit. The ego will want to use power, not for God's purposes or in service of truth, beauty, and goodness, but for its own aggrandizement and defense. When honor is sought for its own sake or in order to puff up the ego, it becomes dangerous as well.

So what's the way out? "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all." When you serve others; when you become the least, you are accessing the power of God and you are seeking the honor of God.

Wheeled cabin bags

St. Georges Junior School pupils are kindly collecting thermal items for The Passage, the homeless centre in London.

After the 11th November we plan to take them up to the centre, but need from parishioners any second hand small wheeled cabin bags you don't need.

After we have dropped off the items, the centre is very keen to keep the suitcases for the clients who visit, who often want to put 'all their worldly possessions in there' when they leave.

Please leave with Mary Lee in the parish office, the week of 11th November till the 15th November in the mornings up till noon. (except Wednesday).

Many thanks.

Diocesan Pastoral Plan and the Weybridge Deanery

Bishop Richard shared his Pastoral Plan and vision for our diocese in January 2024. In time our deanery will become a single 'parish of communities.' A Steering Group was set up, with Canon Chris Spain of Egham as the Moderator, and is now meeting regularly to discern ways forward. The group, consisting of clergy and lay people, is looking at how we embed the principles and vision of the Pastoral Plan, recognising that the roles of clergy will evolve, also how we provide support for parish communities and mission. Rooted in a vision of love and of a missionary church, please pray for the steering group as it meets over the coming months.

World Mission Sunday this weekend celebrates a profound truth: that we are all cherished children of God; united as one family by His unconditional love. The day offers valuable opportunities for prayer, solidarity, and giving, uniting Catholics worldwide through the sharing of the transformative Good News that everyone deserves to hear. Missionaries are often the first to respond in times of crisis and the last to leave, staying with the communities they serve through danger, poverty, and hardship. Sister Jovanna is currently serving families in Lebanon who live under the constant threat of rockets and gunfire - she is determined to stay and serve her community, despite the risks. Churches and schools are opening to welcome people who have been displaced from their homes. Speaking to Missio, Sr Jovanna said: "Our aim is to share love and care with families in real need. As long as we have food, we will share it and do everything we can to support them, preserving their dignity and hope."

Thank you from SVP

Our St. Vincent de Paul society would like to thank everyone for their generous donations of over £2,000 to the SVP appeal. These funds will be put to immediate use with food parcels for families in need.

Assisted Suicide

The legalisation of assisted suicide in England & Wales is now firmly on the UK Parliament's agenda. In a Pastoral Letter issued last weekend, Cardinal Vincent Nichols said: "Be careful what you wish for. This proposed change in the law may be a source of relief to some. But it will bring great fear and trepidation to many, especially those who have vulnerabilities and those living with disabilities. What is now proposed will not be the end of the story. It is a story better not begun." *Catholics across our community of faith are encouraged to contact their MP and oppose a change in the law. You can find out more on the diocesan website here.
