Sunday, March 24, 2024 / Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion/ Mark 14:1-15:47

Friends, on this Palm Sunday, we are privileged to become immersed in Mark's great Passion narrative, where the kingship of Jesus emerges with great clarity—and also with great irony.

We read that upon being brought before the Sanhedrin, Jesus is asked whether he is the Messiah, an implicit reference to David. When Jesus calmly responds, "I am," the high priest tears his robes, for how could a shackled criminal possibly be the kingly descendant of David? Upon being presented to Pilate, Jesus is asked the functionally equivalent question: "Are you the king of the Jews?" Again a calmly affirmative answer comes: "You say so." This leads the soldiers to mock him, placing a purple cloak on his shoulders and a crown of thorns on his head.

Mark does not want us to miss the irony that, precisely as the King of the Jews and the Son of David, Jesus is implicitly king to those soldiers. For the mission of the Davidic king is the unification not only of the tribes of Israel but also of the tribes of the world. What commenced with David's gathering of the tribes of Israel would soon reach completion in the criminal raised high on the cross, thereby drawing all people to himself.

Bishop Robert Barron

Holy Week is the most solemn and glorious week in Christianity, the pinnacle of the liturgical year.

Holy Week begins with Palm Sunday (when Jesus made his final entrance into Jerusalem) and culminates with Easter Sunday.

As Holy Week progresses to its final days the solemnity heightens.

THE SACRED TRIDUUM

Sundown on Holy Thursday to sundown on Easter Sunday is considered the most solemn part of the liturgical year. This three-day period is referred to as the Easter Triduum, also known as the Sacred Triduum, or Paschal Triduum. The word "triduum" comes from the Latin word triduum, which comes from tris ("three") + dies ("day"). Basically, the Sacred Triduum is one great festival recounting the last three days of Jesus' life on earth, the events of his Passion and Resurrection. Though chronologically three days, they are liturgically one day unfolding for us the unity of Christ's life, death and resurrection.

Bishop Richard will concelebrate the Chrism Mass at Arundel Cathedral with the priests of our Diocese on Wednesday 27th March at 6:00 pm

During the Mass Bishop Richard will bless three holy oils, with diocesan priests renewing their promises of ordination to serve God and His people. The oils blessed during the Mass are that of the sick, of chrism, and of catechumens. These are used wherever there is a sacramental anointing, such as the anointing of the sick, the anointing of those about to be (or newly) baptised, or the anointing of priests.

People are warmly invited to attend the Mass in person, or participate via the Cathedral livestream

Episode 5 of our Lent Invited mission is out now!

Join Fr Gabriel Dobson OSB from East Brighton Parish as he talks about, "the height of our Christian year" and the richness of the liturgies during Holy Week and Easter. Fr Gabriel explores how we move from joy and "hosannas" on Palm Sunday into the sorrow of the Passion Gospel, and then through the events of Holy Week to the Triduum: Holy Thursday and the Mass of the Lord's Supper, Good Friday's commemoration of the Lord's Passion, and Holy Saturday, when we celebrate with renewed appreciation and joy that Jesus is alive and that we are alive in Him. *To view Click here

Swieconka

The Polish Traditional blessing of food will take place on Holy Saturday (30th March) at 3:00 pm in the church.

Completing Initiation

Please keep in your prayers those adults and children who will be baptised, received into the church, or confirmed in this parish at Easter.

Prayer for Peace

Almighty God, Lord of history, our lives are in your hands.

As war continues to rage, hear our prayer: receive the dead;

comfort the bereaved;

stand by refugees and displaced persons;

heal the wounds of body and soul;

be close to everyone working to help those in need.

Grant peace, reconciliation and understanding,

even when everything seems hopeless.

Lord, send your Holy Spirit down upon the earth,

the spirit that conquers division, the spirit that leads to freedom, the spirit that overcomes war.

Lord of time and of eternity,

Give our world the peace, which only you can give. Amen.

Our Lady, Queen of Peace.

Pray for us and the whole world.
