Sunday, August 25, 2024 | Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time | John 6:60-69

Friends, we come today to the end of the extraordinary sixth chapter of John's Gospel. Before this, Jesus told his listeners, "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you."

Well, today, we have the denouement of the story.

We hear that "many of Jesus' disciples who were listening said, 'This saying is hard; who can accept it?'"

Notice that we are talking about Jesus' followers.

And yet they find this teaching impossible to take.

If his words were meant in a symbolic sense, they wouldn't have had this shocking effect. If what he meant was simply, This bread is a symbol of my body, why would there be such a strong reaction? I mean, the Jewish Scriptures deal in poetic metaphor all the time.

The point is that they had understood him in this context only too well.

Given every opportunity to explain himself better, Jesus does nothing of the kind. Instead, he upbraids them for their lack of faith.

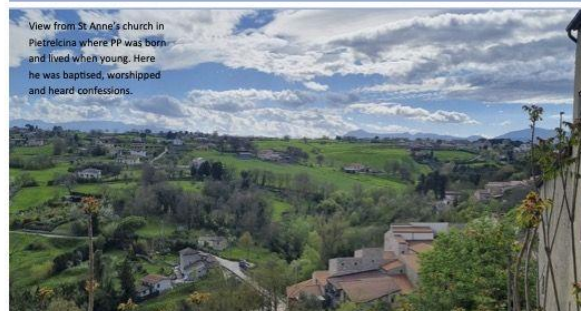

This is why the Catholic tradition has insisted, against all attempts to soften these words of Jesus, that he should be taken straightforwardly.

Annual March for Life

7th September

The annual March for Life, giving witness to the right to life for all from conception, will take place on Saturday September 7th. The theme this year is “Abortion isn’t Healthcare”.

There will be talks and an exhibition at the Emmanuel Centre from 10.00 am. Children are welcome and catered for in an age-appropriate way. The march starts at 1.30 pm and goes to Parliament Square where there will be talks followed by prayers, finishing at 4.30 pm.

For further information click here. Numbers increase year by year and marchers are often very warmly supported by passers-by.

This provides a very powerful witness to the concerns shared by so many that women should be better supported and babies better protected.

Please join and be part of that witness.

Exam Results

Many of our young parishioners will have received their exam results this week.

Some of our young parishioners will be happy and excited about their results and congratulations are in order.

Some may be feeling a little disappointed.

What we should all remember at this time of year is that exam results do not define us.

No matter how the results went, new opportunities will arise and how you move forward in the important thing.

Whether things went well or badly, it is wise to spend time in prayer to listen for direction from God and to receive the courage to take the next steps.

Feast of St. Monica & St. Augustine

27th and 28th August

Born in the 4th century in North Africa to Christian parents, Monica's patience and kindness helped to bring her husband's family to faith in Christ.

After many years of wandering in the places of pleasure and privilege of the world, Augustine returned to the Christian faith and became a bishop and Doctor of the Church.

Check out the video below from Bishop Barron's Pivotal Player series to learn more about Augustine's journey back to Christianity and how Monica's "tears, prayers, plaints, and laments" helped to bring her son home:

Prayer to St. Monica

Blessed Monica, mother of St. Augustine, we give thanks to our Father in Heaven.

Who looked with mercy upon your tears
over your wayward son.

His conversion and heroic sanctification
were the fruit of your prayers.

Dear St. Monica,

we now ask you to pray with us

for all those sons and daughters that have wandered away from God, and to add your prayers to those of all mothers who are worried over their children.

Pray also for us that,

following your example, we may,

in the company of our children,

one day enjoy the eternal vision of our Father in Heaven.

Amen
