The Pope's Prayer Intention for January

For the Right to An Education

Let us pray for migrants, refugees, and those affected by war, that their right to an education, which is necessary to build a better world, might always be respected.

Lord, the Word who is Life.
May all the people of our Diocese grow in openness
to the power of the Holy Spirit,
so that through a growth
in understanding and courage,
and truly open to your call,
we may bear powerful witness
to all around us,
for you are Lord for ever and ever.
Amen.

Sunday, January 26, 2025 / Third Sunday in Ordinary Time / Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

Friends, today in the Gospel, Jesus declares that he has fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah: “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor.”

Jesus came preaching the kingdom of God. The deaf hear, the blind see, the lame walk, the dead are raised to life, the poor have the Good News preached to them, enemies are forgiven. And ultimately, in the Resurrection, Jesus’ followers saw that the old world—the world predicated upon death and the works of death, the world that had done Jesus in—was now defeated. God had definitively declared his opposition to that world and his support of the new one.

So awed were they by the Resurrection—and you can sense it in every book and letter of the New Testament—that they awaited the imminent arrival of the new state of affairs, the return of Jesus and the establishment of God’s kingdom. Though Jesus did not immediately return, the old world was over, broken, compromised, its destruction now just a matter of time.

If you think of St/Pancras International or New York Grand Central you imagine long romantic journeys. You know they are special places promising excitement and adventure. But, there are dozens of other glorious stations in the UK and abroad. We will take a journey around some of the most evocative and splendid stations in the world. We will look not only at the magnificence of the architecture and the brilliant engineering but will discover numerous artworks within the stations and examine many depictions of stations in art - like Claude Monet's Gare St.Lazare or William Frith's Paddington.

Ian Swankie is a Londoner with a contagious enthusiasm for art and architecture. He is an official guide at the Tate Modern, Tate Britain, Guildhall of Art Gallery and St.Paul's Cathedral. He is also a freelance London tour guide.

Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes 2025

Applications for this summer's Pilgrimage to Lourdes (25 - 31 July by air, 24 July - 1 August by coach/jumbulance) are now open on the diocesan website. Our pilgrimage to Lourdes is one of the most significant pastoral events in our annual diocesan calendar, with hundreds of members of our diocesan community visiting the Grotto together each year. We travel to France with more than 700 pilgrims, including those who are sick, disabled, frail or elderly and need our help to make the pilgrimage. Our pilgrimage is "Love in Action" and we journey to Lourdes to serve each other and to renew our commitment to walk with Jesus Christ with the help of Our Lady and St Bernadette.

Is Our Lady calling you to Lourdes in 2025?

St. Charles Borromeo School

Mr. Stephen Holt, headteacher at St. Charles Borromeo School, announced this week that he will be stepping down from his role at the end of the summer term. Stephen has been headteacher at the school for 20 years and many parishioners have benefited greatly from his faith, dedication, professionalism and vision over this long period.

We'll have an opportunity to thank Stephen formally later in the academic year.
