Friends, today in the Gospel passage, we see Jesus' mercy toward the blind man as a hallmark of his ministry. Jesus comes as healer, savior, inaugurator of the kingdom. He is the embodiment of hope. Jesus wanted to connect human suffering to the very source of life and health. The energy of God pours through him to the needy.

Now, I realize a question may be forming in your mind: "Well, why doesn't he simply cure everyone then?" The answer is obviously wrapped up in the mystery of God's will, but the important point is this: Jesus is healer in many senses, but ultimately in the sense that he heals us from sin and death, not only physical maladies. What appears historically in Jesus is an eschatological anticipation, a hint and foreshadowing of what is coming in God's time and in his everlasting kingdom.

Wheeled Cabin Bags

St. Georges Junior School pupils are kindly collecting thermal items for The Passage, the homeless centre in London. After the 11th November we plan to take them up to the centre, but need from parishioners any second hand small wheeled cabin bags you don't need. After we have dropped off the items, the centre is very keen to keep the suitcases for the clients who visit, who often want to put 'all their worldly possessions in there' when they leave. Please leave with Mary Lee in the parish office the week of 11th November till the 15th November in the mornings up till noon (except Wednesday). Many thanks.

Pope Francis Has Issued his Fourth Encyclical Dilexit nos – "He Loved Us"

Understanding how Jesus loves us is a matter of the heart: it is a story of actions, glances, and words.

It is a story of friendship. "I am my heart", writes Pope Francis "for my heart is what sets me apart, shapes my spiritual identity and puts me in communion with other people"

You can read *Dilexit nos* here.

All Saints Day

Friday 1st November

This is a great feast in the calendar of the Church: All Saints Day! We celebrate all the holy men and women who have gone before us, those famous and those unknown to the books of history.

All were sinners, but all relied on the grace of God to be totally transformed to the will of God.

The apostle John wrote in the book of Revelation:

"I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue.

They stood before the throne and before the Lamb,

wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands."

(Revelation 7:9)

All Souls - Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

Saturday 2nd November

On this day we remember all those who have died. We remember their kind deeds, the things they did for us and for other people; we remember how we loved them and how they loved us and we pray we will be united with them again on the last day.
