Sunday, January 5, 2025 / Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord / Matthew 2:1-12

Friends, the story of the Magi told in today's Gospel is a summary of the principal dynamics of the spiritual life. Watching the night sky with scrupulous attention for signs of God's purpose, the Magi evoke the importance of alertness in the spiritual order. We must keep our eyes open to see what God is up to.

Once they saw the star, they moved, despite the length of the journey. Sometimes people know what God wants them to do, but they don't act, either out of fear, laziness, or the influence of bad habits. The Magi teach us to move.

When they spoke to Herod of the birth of a new King, he tried to use them to destroy the baby. When you walk the path that God has laid out for you, expect opposition.

The wise men came to Bethlehem and gave the child their precious gifts. When you come to Christ, break open the very best of yourself and make it a gift for him.

Finally, they returned to their home country by another route. As Fulton Sheen commented so magnificently: of course they did; for no one comes to Christ and goes back the same way he came!

A Blessing for the New Year

"May the Lord bless you and keep you.

May the Lord let his face shine on you and be gracious to you.

May the Lord uncover his face to you and bring you peace."

Numbers 6.24-26

A Great Resolution for 2025

Why not spend 30 minutes, or an hour, in Eucharistic Adoration every Tuesday?

Adoration begins after the 10:00 Morning Mass and finishes at 21:00.

Time spent in the presence of the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament is a great way to deepen your friendship with Christ, and to grow in faith and love.

Please email cppadoration@gmail.com if you'd like to make a regular commitment.
