Sunday, February 9, 2025 / Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time/ Luke 5:1-11

Friends, in today's Gospel, Jesus climbs into Peter's boat without asking permission. He simply commandeers this vessel that is central to the fisherman's life and commences to give orders.

This represents something of enormous moment: the invasion of grace.

Though God respects our relative independence, he is not the least bit content to leave us in a "natural" state. Instead, he wants to live in us, to become the Lord of our lives, moving into our minds, wills, bodies, imaginations, nerves, and bones.

This commandeering of nature by grace does not involve the compromising of nature but rather its perfection and elevation. When Jesus moves into the house of the soul, the powers of the soul are heightened and properly directed; when Jesus commands the boat of the natural human life, that life is preserved, strengthened, and given a new orientation.

This is signaled symbolically by the Lord's directive to put out into the deep water. On our own, we can know and will within a very narrow range, seeking those goods and truths that appear within the horizon of our natural consciousness, but when grace invades us, we are enticed into far deeper waters.

Second Collection

There will be a retiring collection for the Lourdes Pilgrimage Fund after all Masses this weekend. (Diocesan Gift Aid envelopes may be used.)

Lourdes is a place of renewal, a place where our relationship with Jesus is deepened, however, the pilgrimage relies on the generous help and support of people across our family of faith to provide financial help to many Assisted Pilgrims, and those who will care for them during our pilgrimage week. With the help of those who are able to give this weekend, many more people will be able to answer Our Lady's call, join our special Pilgrimage to Lourdes this summer, and benefit from the many graces available in Lourdes.

On Tuesday 11 February we celebrate Our Lady's appearance to a young peasant girl, Bernadette, in 1858 in Lourdes, France. Through a series of private revelations, Mary revealed herself as "the Immaculate Conception" and the site today receives many pilgrims who desire to be healed in the waters of Lourdes. Pope John Paul II made three pilgrimages to Lourdes during his pontificate. He also proclaimed February 11, the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, as the World Day of the Sick.

Check out this video on Bishop Barron's visit (then Fr. Barron!) to France, visiting the site of Mary's apparition at Lourdes:

World Day of the Sick

Tuesday 11 February

Initiated by St. John Paul II as a way for believers to offer prayers for those suffering from illnesses. The day coincides with the commemoration of Our Lady of Lourdes. People around the world take the time to pray for the sick and for those who work very hard to alleviate the sufferings of the sick on this day.

St. Scholastica was born in Italy around the year 480, the twin sister of St. Benedict. Inspired by her brother's teachings, she founded a community of nuns near Monte Cassino, where she died in 543. It is said that at her death, her soul ascended to heaven like a dove. Her memorial is February 10.
