We rightly celebrate our birthdays but seldom the date of our baptism. Yet our baptism is our birthday as Christians. In this Sunday's liturgy we celebrate the baptism of Jesus. In celebrating His baptism, we are reminded of the significance of our own baptism. We have been graced. Having been baptised we are invited and empowered to build the kingdom of God in collaboration with God's people. Consider watching and sharing this video of Bishop Barron's on the importance of Baptism from his newest series *The Creed*.

Your parish has gifted you access to all of Word on
