Gospel Reflection

Before leaving his apostles Jesus commissioned them to preach the Gospel to the whole world. In order to help them carry out that mission he promised to send them the Holy Spirit. On Pentecost day he fulfilled that promise.

The task of preaching the Gospel to the world now depends on us. We are Christ's witnesses. It's a great privilege but a daunting task. However, we also can rely on the help of the Holy Spirit. But how are we to witness?

There is the witness of words. We witness by professing our faith. This could include explaining it and defending it.

There is the witness of deeds. An apple tree that never produced an apple would be a poor witness for the orchard. Even one good apple speaks. 'Never recommend anything unless you can provide a sample of it'. (Thoreau).

Then there is the witness of one's life. Trees witness to life just by being. Tall, straight, motionless, they are silent yet eloquent witnesses to life. Flowers bear witness to beauty simply by being what they are.

And Christians bear witness by what they are. The most eloquent sermon is the silent sermon of example. The witness of a Christian life is more powerful than any argument. There are those whose lives bear radiant witness to the transforming power of the faith. In their lives the faith is a bright flame, whereas in the lives of others it is a dim flow or an occasional spark. The person who, despite all his/her human limitations and defects, lives a simple life, taking Christ as the model, is a sign of God and of transcendent realities. There is a hunger in the world today for the Christ of the Gospels. Jesus said to the apostles, 'Stay in the city, until you are clothed with power from on high'. The power in question was the power of the Holy Spirit. We need that same power if we are to witness to Jesus. Those who witness will share his glory. (Fr. Flor McCarthy, SDB)

A brilliant selection of global workshops, trainings, and events, all live streamed via Global Catholic Climate Movement social medial channels will help us explore these themes. MARATHON OF PRAYER to invoke the end of the pandemic

THE MONTH OF MAY
"From the whole Church the prayer to God went up incessantly" (Acts 12:5)

At the heart of the Holy Father's wish, the month of May will be dedicated to a marathon of prayer from the theme "From the whole Church the prayer to God went up incessantly (Acts 12:5)".

The initiative will involve in a special way all the Sanctuaries of the world, so that they become promoters to the faithful, families and communities of the recitation of the Rosary to invoke the end of the pandemic.

Global Prayer Marathon for the Month of May

Pope Francis has called for a global prayer marathon for the entire month of May, praying for the end to the pandemic. "The initiative will involve in a special way all shrines in the world" in promoting the initiative so that individuals, families and communities all take part in reciting the rosary. It is the heartfelt desire of the Holy Father that the month of May be dedicated to a prayer marathon dedicated to the theme, 'from the entire church an unceasing prayer rises to God.' The theme refers to the miraculous event recounted in the Acts of the Apostles (12:1-12) when all the church prayed for Peter, who was imprisoned until God sent an angel to free him, illustrating how the Christian community comes together to pray in the face of danger and how the Lord listens and performs an unexpected miracle.

Bowled Over: Ignatius, the Cannonball and God

Thursday 20th May 2021 at 7.00-8.00pm via Zoom

The 20th May this year marks the 500th anniversary of that moment when a French cannonball ripped through the legs of Ignatius of Loyola and set in train events which would change his life and have an extraordinary impact on the world. To mark the anniversary, Fr Adrian Porter SJ offers a reflection on that event, on the way it played out in Ignatius' mind, leading to his conversion and a whole new way of relating to God. Using images and extracts from the writings of St Ignatius, this will be an opportunity to observe close-up the way in which God deals "immediately" (as Ignatius phrases it) with a soul and the soul "with its Creator and Lord". No prior knowledge of St Ignatius or his spirituality is required. All are welcome.
