Sunday, April 28, 2024 / Fifth Sunday of Easter/ John 15:1-8

Friends, our passage today is from the beautiful, evocative, and challenging fifteenth chapter of John's Gospel. Jesus declares that he is the vine and we are the branches. He is the power and energy source in which we live. This vine and branches image is closely related, therefore, to Paul's metaphor of the Body of Christ.

The point is that we live in him and he in us. Jesus is the source of supernatural life in us, and without him we would have none of it. If you are separated from the vine, you will die spiritually; if you are connected to it, you will live a supernatural life.

What does this mean concretely? It means a steady immersion in the prayer of the Church and steady communion with God, speaking to him on a regular basis. It means an immersion in the Scriptures and soaking in the truth of the Bible. It means engaging in the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

And you must participate in the sacraments—especially Confession and the Eucharist. By the sacraments, we stay close to the Christ who forgives our sins and enlivens our spirits.

Bishop Robert Barron

Prayer for the Spirit of Work

God our Father, Creator and Ruler of the universe, in every age you call us to use and develop our gifts for the good of others.

With St. Joseph as our guide, help us to do the work you have asked and come to the rewards you have promised.

Please grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Catholic Bishops of England and Wales (CBCEW) have issued a pastoral reflection on gender

The document, called Intricately Woven by the Lord emphasises that all are welcome in the Church, but says that the sexual identity of an individual is not a purely “cultural or social construction.” We are all created in the image of God, with a dignity given to us by our creator. It is vital that as followers of Christ we imitate the boundless mercy and compassion of God as we deal with the complexity of another’s life. But this needs to be done with a clear understanding of the Catholic vision and understanding of the human person and a holistic view of human sexuality.” You can read the bishops' pastoral reflection here. To find out more visit the CBCEW website.

Children's Choir

please email Helen cppmusicgroup@gmail.com

You will be sent links for the hymns that we will be singing.

We will meet to rehearse from 10:00 am in the Church.

The explosive power of Christ (that attracts even atheists!)

After Saint Paul's conversion, he toured the ancient world proclaiming the dynamis of Jesus Christ. That word, dunamis, appears 120 times in the New Testament, and it's the root of our English words dynamite and dynamic. It refers to miraculous and supreme power, which Jesus embodies as the Son of God. It's as if Paul were proclaiming "the dynamite of Christ." But what was he getting at? Why does Christ have such explosive power, and how do we tap into it?

Your parish has gifted you access to all of Word on Fire's videos!

The Vatican Dicastery for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments has confirmed its approval for the new Lectionary proposed by the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales last year. The Lectionary, which includes the scripture readings for Mass and the sacraments, is being published by The Catholic Truth Society (CTS) and will come into use in Catholic parishes in England, Wales and Scotland this December. The changes are intended to make biblical translations more faithful to their original languages, using better, more up-to-date biblical scholarship and a text which is more proclaimable. You can find out more about the Lectionary, on the diocesan website.

CPP Home Business Fair

CPP Home Industry Fair

We will be holding our first ever CPP Home Business Fair on Sunday 19th May (please note the date change) in the Church hall beginning after the 9:00 am Mass (9:45 am - 10:20 am) and after the 10:30 am Mass (11:20 am - 12:30 pm), when we encourage parishioners who run businesses from home to take a table to exhibit their services.

Whilst Exhibitors will pay £50.00 for a table, attendance is free and so we hope that you will all pop in anytime after the 9:00 am Mass to see how you can support your fellow parishioners' businesses now or perhaps sometime in the future.

If you run a business from home or similar and are interested in taking a table, please send your name and details of your business to cppprojectkimbo@gmail.com

We will then share more specific details regarding set up, times (etc) with you.

Prayer for those sitting Examinations.

Lord, I know you are with me and love me.

Give me peace of mind as I prepare for this time of study.

Keep me from all distractions so that I will make the best use of this time that is available to me.

Give me insight that I might understand what I am studying and help me to remember it when the time comes.

Above all, I thank you for the ability to be able to study and for the many gifts and talents you have given me.

Help me always to use them in such a way that they honour you and do justice to myself. Amen.
